Proxy Form

For your vote to be effective it must be received by 11:00am (Sydney Time) on Monday 28 January 2013

How to Vote on Items of Business

All your securities will be voted in accordance with your directions.

Appointment of Proxy

Voting 100% of your holding: Direct your proxy how to vote by marking one of the boxes opposite each item of business. If you do not mark a box your proxy may vote as they choose. If you mark more than one box on an item your vote will be invalid on that item.

Voting a portion of your holding: Indicate a portion of your voting rights by inserting the percentage or number of securities you wish to vote in the For, Against or Abstain box or boxes. The sum of the votes cast must not exceed your voting entitlement or 100%.

Appointing a second proxy: You are entitled to appoint up to two proxies to attend the meeting and vote on a poll. If you appoint two proxies you must specify the percentage of votes or number of securities for each proxy, otherwise each proxy may exercise half of the votes. When appointing a second proxy write both names and the percentage of votes or number of securities for each in Step 1 overleaf.

A proxy need not be a securityholder of the Company.

Signing Instructions

Individual: Where the holding is in one name, the securityholder must sign.

Joint Holding: Where the holding is in more than one name, all of the securityholders should sign.

Power of Attorney: If you have not already lodged the Power of Attorney with the registry, please attach a certified photocopy of the Power of Attorney to this form when you return it.

Companies: Where the company has a Sole Director who is also the Sole Company Secretary, this form must be signed by that person. If the company (pursuant to section 204A of the Corporations Act 2001) does not have a Company Secretary, a Sole Director can also sign alone. Mr Julian Constable has been a non executive director since 2003. Appointed to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee 5 November 2010. A member of the Audit Committee until 5 November 2010. Authorised representative of Bell Potter Securities Limited. Director of Hunter Hall Global Value Limited since May 2010, with over 27 years experience in the stockbroking industry.

The Directors (other than Mr Julian Constable) recommend the re-election of Mr Julian Constable.

The Directors (other than Mr Kevin Eley) recommend the re-election of Mr Kevin Eley.

Resolution 4 - Remuneration Report

The Remuneration Report, which is included in a separate and clearly identified section of the Annual Directors' Report, sets out the Company's remuneration arrangement for directors, secretaries and senior managers of the Company as required by section 300A of the Corporations Act 2001 ("Corporations Act").

Section 250R(2) of the Corporations Act requires a resolution that the remuneration report be adopted, be put to the vote at the Company's AGM.

If 25% or more of votes that are cast are voted against the adoption of the Remuneration Report at two consecutive AGMs, shareholders will be required to vote at the second of those AGMs on a resolution (a "spill resolution") that another meeting be held within 90 days at which all of the Company's directors (other than the CEO) must stand for re-election. There was no first "strike" at the last AGM and hence no provision has been made for a spill resolution at this AGM.

The vote on this resolution is advisory only and does not bind the directors or the Company.

The Board recommends that shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 4.

The Chairman of the AGM intends to vote undirected proxies in favour of this resolution.

Voting exclusion statement

In accordance with section 250R(4) of the Corporations Act, the Company will disregard any votes cast on this resolution by key management personnel (as defined in the Corporations Act), details of whose remuneration are included in the remuneration report and any closely related party (as defined in the Corporations Act) of such key management personnel.

However, the Company will not disregard a vote if it is cast by such key management personnel or closely related party as proxy on behalf of a person who is entitled to vote, in accordance with the directions on the proxy form.

The Company will not disregard undirected proxies voted by the Chairman on behalf of persons entitled to vote at the AGM.

Undirected proxies held by the Chairman in relation to this resolution will be cast and counted in favour of the resolution.

How the Chairman of the meeting will vote undirected proxies

The Chairman's voting intention is to vote undirected proxies in favour of each of the resolutions set out in this Notice of AGM.

The Chairman will have the ability to vote undirected proxies in relation to Resolution 4 - Approval of the Remuneration Report. Undirected proxies held by the Chairman in relation to this resolution will also be cast and counted in favour of the resolution.

A member can appoint the Chairman as proxy with directions to cast that member's votes contrary to the Chairman's stated voting intention on any or all of the resolutions, or to abstain from voting on certain resolutions. Where a member appoints the Chairman as their proxy but does not direct their vote on a particular resolution, the member will be authorising the Chairman to vote in accordance with the Chairman's clearly stated voting intention.

Voting Entitlements

For the purpose of the Corporations Act, the Company has determined that all securities of the Company that are quoted securities at 7:00pm Sydney time on 28 January 2013 will be taken, for the purpose of the Meeting, to be held by the persons who held them at the time.

Proxies

A member entitled to attend and vote at this meeting is entitled to appoint no more than 2 proxies to attend and vote in his or her stead. A member can appoint an individual or a body corporate as a proxy. If you appoint a body corporate, that body corporate must appoint an individual to represent and exercise its powers in accordance with section 250D of the Corporations Act.

A proxy need not be a member of the Company.

If the member appoints 2 proxies the member may specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy is entitled to exercise. If no proportion or number of votes is specified, each proxy, may exercise half of the votes. If the specified proportion or number of votes exceed that which the member is entitled to, each proxy may exercise half of the member's votes. Any fractions of votes brought about by the apportionment of votes will be disregarded.
